E. David Yocom, Vice President of Community Relations

- 1. Movember has come to an end. I know there wasn't a huge turnout but we are finding a way to reward the guys who did participate.

2. Christmas lighting competition is Saturday 12/06 between 6pm and 8pm (subject to change). If you are participating but do not have a lettered house or want to use a house other than your lettered house please notify me what that address will be. I will be sending out an official email tomorrow regarding rules and other logistics. There will be a prize to be donated to the winner's national philanthropy, similar to the food drive ($500-$1000). Judging will be done by Kathryn, Travis and Jason Mockford.
  3. Food Drive is going well, it ends Friday.
  4. Gift drive still has over 300 presents to buy. Gifts must be purchased and wrapped by Wednesday. Gift wishes can be picked up and presents dropped off at following locations: The CCE (Building 52, E22), ASI (UU 202), Kennedy Library (2nd floor), Poly Canyon Village Community Center
  5. Due to editions in our community service policy, please have your community service representatives file what they can for hours. We want it for data purposes but service this quarter will not go towards standards of excellence or any fining.
