V. PUBLIC COMMENT

Public comment is intended as a time for any member of the public to address the committee on any matter regarding IFC.

A. Rebecca McKinley, 3rd Annual Run for Music (Kappa Kappa Psi- Iota Pi chapter)

1. 5k-10k Fun Run, all proceeds go to support the Mustang Band and smaller concert groups
2. Race around campus and has bands at stops to pump you up
3. Saturday, Feb. 7th, Begins at 9am
4. runformusic.com
5. Come out and support the bands!

B. Cameron Javier, Fight for Life

1. If you are considering participating in Fight For Life, the fighter specific training will be held MWF 1-2PM at The Pit SLO beginning week 4 of Spring Quarter. So, if you are serious about fighting then you should try to make your 12-3 MWF available. I know that this is not an easy task, so don't be too concerned if you want to participate but cannot make the fighter specific times. You will still be able to attend other classes focusing on fitness (M-F 6-7PM), beginner level technique (Sat 1-2PM), and sparring (Fri 7-8PM).
2. There will be a Facebook/web page with many more details soon. For now, I or someone from the planning committee can come by ANY fraternity's meeting to further discuss semantics of the event. I especially encourage the larger fraternities to get in contact with me concerning a visit. If you would like an informational visit, please text me at 925-818-4230 or email me at ckjavier@calpoly.edu BEFORE MON, FEB 16th as non-senior priority registration begins Feb 17th. Ideally, try to contact me before SUN, FEB 8th because senior registration is that week

3. Flyer will come up and a Facebook page, will come and present that when finished

- D. Chad Horn, Vice President of Scholarship
1. N/A
- E. David Yocom, Vice President of Community Relations
1. Philanthropy/Service Roundtable went well. Will be sending out minutes tomorrow. Basically we discussed setting up the Clothesline Project and planning a large scale fundraiser, in late April, to raise money for Safer and similar organizations. At this point it would operate in a similar structure to Culture Fest, with booths for selling food or crafts etc. Still have to get PHA and USFC on board.
  2. Clothesline Project is probably going to be the last week of February or the 1st week of March. Dates will be decided this week.
  3. I will be sending out a comprehensive list of upcoming service/philanthropy events in one document by the end of this week. I will make it a Google doc form so I can update it regularly. This will be a primary resource for you and your chairmen.

4. I need dates for upcoming philanthropies as soon as possible so that you can all see if there are any conflicts. I will go through your philanthropy chairmen but if they are slow to respond please remind them.

XIII. OLD BUSINESS

A. INFORMATION ITEM: S.T.A.T.U.S ACTION PLAN

The S.T.A.T.U.S Action Plan has been submitted to administration for review as of February 2 at 4:30pm.

B. ACTION ITEM: INTERNAL REVIEW COMMITTEE

Due to our increasing need to review policy and discuss large action items, we will vote on the policy regarding the Internal Review Committee.

- 1. Motion to Approve: Delta Sigma Phi
- 2. Seconded: Delta Chi
- 3. Discussion

- a) Delta Sigma Phi: Great idea, we talked about it last week and we should pass it

4. Passed

XIV. NEW BUSINESS

A. INFORMATION ITEM: SEXUAL ASSAULT TASK FORCE

There was a disappointing lack of fraternity representation at the first task force meeting. I am requesting that at least 9 fraternities send someone to speak on behalf of their organization.

B. INFORMATION ITEM: EXECUTIVE STAFF - OPEN APPLICATION PERIOD

Now that the Junior Board has been decided, we will open the application period for the IFC Executive Staff which will serve in a similar capacity as the Junior Board and will be invited to leadership development sessions but will not have mentorship from Executive board members. The application period is continuous so please send any interested members.

C. DISCUSSION ITEM: PARTY REGISTRATION POLICY EDITS

As part of our ongoing effort to make our social events more safe and collaborate with the university to register them. We will discuss realistic and agreeable revisions.

-Luke McDade: A lot in the policy that is hard to abide by. Kathryn agreed, Guest list is unrealistic

- Able to wave 2 guest list, but send in 1 to the best of the houses knowledge

-Alpha Epsilon Pi: having wristbands for brother's guest

-Delta Sigma Phi: restricts 21 year olds from what they can drink

-Alpha Gamma Rho: need to be more realistic

-Alex Thomas: people would pregame, there can be ways to monitored

- Alex Horncliff: Will send out the policy

D. DISCUSSION ITEM: SLO SAFE RIDE PARTNERSHIP

Slo Safe Ride has approached me with an opportunity to partner up to do a Greek VIP wristband per quarter to do a shuttle on Friday and Saturday nights from 11:00 PM - 2:15 AM at the cost of $3000 per quarter. We will discuss the pros and cons and make revisions to the possible agreement.

-Phi Sigma Kappa: Initially great idea, but hard to keep track on

-Delta Chi: Is there is a cap?

- Alex Horncliff: No cap, if you are 21 and in a fraternity, you're good

- David Yocom: what's the behavior code?

-Alex Horncliff: They don't care

-Delta Chi: sounds like a good deal

-Theta Chi and Delta Sigma Phi are not interested, but majority go for it
