5. PUBLIC COMMENTS

Public comment is intended as a time for any member of the public to address the committee on any matter regarding IFC.
6. SPECIAL PRESENTATIONS
  - 6.1. Rachel Scott - Open Science Cafe
    - 6.1.1. Open Science Cafe is a student competition for a $3000 budget, a $500 stipend, and the chance to put on your own event with a researcher/thought leader of your choice. This is a great chance to gain valuable experience to show future employers!
    - 6.1.2. Open Science Cafe is designed to inspire and empower students to make their own event with a researcher, thought leader or creative mover and shaker of their choice. This is an opportunity for students to gain project management experience from start (concept and development) to finish (implementation and assessment). The event can relate to any discipline; it doesn't have to be about science.
    - 6.1.3. Last year, Art and Design senior Ali Albiani brought Steve Duenes, graphics director from The New York Times, to speak about using data and design to tell stories. Read more about it on Kennedy Library Out Loud at <http://lib.calpoly.edu/outloud/>.
    - 6.1.4. Deadline to apply is December 1, 2014. The application and more information can be found at <http://lib.calpoly.edu/events-and-exhibits/competitions/open-science-cafe/>.
